WILLIAM H. INMAN,
Counsel to the Governor.

Dear Speaker McWherter:

I am returning House Bill 508/Senate Bill 821 without my signature.

This Bill keeps inmates in prison if they cannot pass a "basic skills" test. This must be unconstitutional; prisoners cannot be kept locked up or denied parole simply because they can't learn.

The Bill has a noble purpose -- to help prisoners get a better basic education. But there must be a better way to do that.

Sincerely,

Lamar Alexander

House Bill No. 508 becomes law without the Governor's signature, as authorized by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of the State of Tennessee.
